

Dear Parents/Carers

Welcome to our latest newsletter! It has been another wonderfully busy week in school, and the children are settling back into their routines brilliantly while diving headfirst into their new learning. Next week, we are looking forward to our new after school clubs starting and KS2 will be doing their first Free Write Friday of the year, watch this space!

YOUR FEEDBACK MATTERS:

Thank you to everyone who completed our recent attendance survey. Your input is incredibly helpful, and I look forward to sharing key insights with you in the coming weeks.

Based on your feedback in our latest parent survey, we are making a few key improvements to help you better support your child's learning at home:

Curriculum Updates: Revised long-term learning plans will be uploaded to our website shortly so you can see exactly what your child is studying each term.

Class Dojo Policy: We are currently drafting a new policy to ensure Class Dojo is used consistently across all year groups, improving communication and keeping you fully informed.

WORKING TOGETHER:

I have attached our revised Home-School Promise to this newsletter. We remain fully committed to building positive, open, and honest relationships with all our families.

Please remember that we operate a true open-door policy. No question is ever too small, and no concern is insignificant - a problem shared really is a problem halved. If you ever need to chat or share feedback on how we can improve, please reach out to us. Looking ahead, you will also have another opportunity to share your views via our next parent survey during our forthcoming Parents' Evenings. The dates for these are below, please look out for a letter soon with further details.

Wednesday 14th October - 4pm-6.30pm
Monday 19th October - 4pm-6.30pm
